

Where Go To Dragons Hide

59 2 4

Chapter 1 by Ethan Tan

Dragons have been in hiding for 100 years. Since then, the four neighbouring floating islands that make Dri, have no way of transport to one another.

Connor and Luke find an underwater cave, where he discovers that the Dragons have mutated into sea creatures.

Chapter 2 by LethalPianist

What's worse, the sea creatures burrow themselves into Connor and Luke. They suffer amnesia and forget about how they have dragons in their bodies, but become able to use the powers the dragons had.

They became dragonslayers.

Chapter 3 by Glowly-Druglord

"I thought I told you to leave the humans alone," the dragoness barked to the two dragons in front of her. Her pale blue and sea green scales shimmered beneath the sunlight, her emerald green eyes narrowed. "Do you realize what you let those two do?"

The deep green one trembled slightly. "I... I didn't mean to, your majesty." The queen rubbed her temples with her talons.

"I find that highly impossible," she rumbled softly. "But now that they have these powers, I need one of you scouting ahead for me." The sky blue one rose from her position, lifting her spiny head.

"I'll do it," she offered, her fin covered tail swishing behind her.

"Thank you, Sky," the queen growled. "Find them and kill them. I don't want any dragonslayers out and about."

"Psssh," a deep sarcastic voice hissed from behind her. "'I don't want any dragonslayers out and about. Listen to me, I'm sooo important.' You're about as important as the spines on my ass." the queen whipped her head around to glare at a solid ash gray dragon with a black maw. His red eyes were narrowed with disgust.

"Avar..." she snarled.
